PROSPECTUS

What is the best alternative in law for the investors to do business in Thailand? The foreign and Thai investors expect to do business in Thailand legally and fairly. There are a lot of requirements of Thai laws. Legal advisor is needed to support the businesses. The good legal advisor must support and advice to the clients as much as the law allow. The more facts and details we get, the more appropriate solution can be provided.

Matthew Legal intends to be a premium legal advisor firm, so the firm realizes that high quality standard must be served to our clients. Moreover, high quality standard must include good moral and fairness. The firm always also provide service mind to clients.

We understand that legal professional service fee is an important factor that the clients will concern. We provide reasonable service fee rate (not expensive). We wish the clients will happy to pay for the service. Therefore, our legal service fee should make the clients are more comfortable to pay.
